TIMOTHY J. TETZLAFF

Joseph M. Pozorski, Jr.
Defendant's Attorney

Daniel R. Humble
Assistant United States Attorney

THE DEFENDANT pled guilty to counts one and three of the indictment. The Defendant is adjudicated guilty of these offense(s):

Title & Section	Nature of Offense	Date Concluded	Count(s)
18 U.S.C. § 2423(a)	Transportation of a Minor with Intent to Engage in Criminal Sexual Activity	July, 2014	1
18 U.S.C. § 2251(a)	Production of Child Pornography	August, 2015	3

The defendant is sentenced as provided in this judgment. The sentence is imposed pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984.

All remaining counts are dismissed upon motion of the United States.

IT IS ORDERED, that the defendant must notify the United States Attorney for this district within 30 days of any change of name, residence, or mailing address until all fines, restitution, costs, and special assessments imposed by this judgment are fully paid. If ordered to pay restitution, the defendant must notify the Court and the United States Attorney of material changes in economic circumstances.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You shall report to the probation office in the district to which you are released within 72 hours of your release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons and shall report to the probation officer in a manner and frequency as reasonably directed by the Court or probation officer.
2. You shall not leave the State of Wisconsin without permission of the court or probation officer.
3. You shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, subject to your Fifth Amendment right against self-incrimination, and follow the reasonable instructions of the probation officer.
4. You shall use your best efforts to find and hold lawful employment, unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
5. You shall notify the probation officer at least ten days prior to any change in your place of residence or employment. When such notification is not possible, you shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of the change.
6. You shall not associate with any persons known by you to be engaged or planning to be engaged in criminal activity. "Associate," as used here, means reside with or regularly socialize with such person.
7. You shall permit a probation officer to visit you at reasonable times at home and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view of the probation officer.
8. You shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer.
9. You shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The defendant shall not have intentional one on one contact with children under the age of 18 unless approved in advance, in writing, by his probation officer, and then only in the physical presence of a responsible adult who has been advised of the defendant's criminal record and history of inappropriate contact with minors, and shall report within 8 hours to the probation office any unauthorized contact with children.
2. The defendant shall participate in an approved program of sex offender mental health assessment and treatment, until such time as he is released from the program by his probation officer. This assessment and treatment may include the polygraph to assist in planning and case monitoring. Any refusal to submit to such assessment or test as scheduled is a violation of the conditions of supervision. The defendant shall waive confidentiality between his probation officer and the sex offender treatment provider and pay the cost of this program under the guidance of his probation officer.
3. The defendant shall have no contact with the victim of the instant offense, any prior victim of abuse acknowledged by the defendant, or the family members of the victims (including letters, communication devices, audio or visual devices, visits, or any contact through a third party) without prior written consent of his probation officer.
4. The defendant shall cooperate with and participate in a computer and internet monitoring and restriction program, and pay the cost of such program as directed. The defendant shall not possess or use any device with access to the internet without the permission of his probation officer and absent the monitoring program, and he shall not possess or use any data encryption or data erasure technique or program. The defendant shall provide his probation officer a complete inventory of all electronic and Internet capable devices, all of his computer pseudonyms, passwords, and logons. The defendant shall consent to his probation officer conducting periodic unannounced examinations of his computer(s) equipment, which may include hardware, removable storage/media devices, and copying of all data from the computer(s). This also includes removal of such equipment by his probation officer, when necessary, for the purpose of conducting a more thorough examination.
5. The defendant shall submit his person, property, house, residence, vehicle, office, papers, computers, other electronic communications or data storage devices, or media, to a search conducted by the United States Probation Officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of release. The defendant shall warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. An officer may conduct a search pursuant to this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that the defendant has violated a condition of their release and that the areas to be searched may contain evidence of this violation. Any search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner.
